The Seeker's Satisfaction

1 WARM UP QUESTION

If someone asked you, "What brings you the deepest satisfaction in life?" how would you answer?

2 SCRIPTURE QUESTIONS

Ask someone to read this week's passage: Psalms 16:1-11

- How do the words "make known to me" describe God's role in David's life? What does that suggest about David's dependence on Him?
- If you were David, experiencing God's leadership and presence as described here, what emotions would be feeling as you wrote these words?

3 MEANING QUESTIONS

- What does this teach about God's desire for human happiness and satisfaction?
- How does this verse reshape our understanding of what it means to live "the good life" as a Christian?
- What assumptions about happiness, fulfillment, or pleasure does this passage affirm or correct?

4 HEART QUESTIONS

- Where are you most tempted to look for "fullness of joy" apart from God?
- If someone observed your priorities, schedule, and thought life, what would they conclude you believe will make you happiest?
- What would change in your daily life if you genuinely believed that God's presence offers greater satisfaction than anything else available to you?

5 ACTION QUESTIONS

- What is one distraction or substitute for joy that God may be calling you to loosen your grip on this week?
- Brainstorm and discuss specific habits that could help group members remember throughout the day that our deepest joy is found in Christ.
